

MATHEMATICS SPECIALIST PROGRAM (K-8)

New Cohort Beginning Fall 2018

The mathematics education faculty at Virginia Tech announces the opening of a new cohort of its Mathematics Specialist (K-8) Program beginning in Fall 2018. This program will be offered at the Roanoke Higher Education Center. Join us March 13th at from 4:30- 6:30 in room 701 of the Virginia Tech Roanoke Center for an information Session

The program is designed for in-service teachers in grades K-8. The program is a three year cohort program made up of 33 hours of coursework focusing on mathematics education leadership and mathematics content specific to grades K-8. The Mathematics Specialist Program leads to a Masters of Education (MAED) degree or Educational Specialist (EdS) degree in Curriculum and Instruction and credentials for Virginia state licensure.
